At ILA West 2018, you'll work with fellow teachers, coaches, and administrators to address these questions head-on. You'll get empowered at literacy-centered, hands-on workshops and walk away with new research and the tactics for implementing it plus strategies you can use in your classroom tomorrow. You'll also gain research plans to address curriculum, assessment, and instruction in addition to administrators' approaches from innovators in the field.

Keynote Speakers

Glenn Singleton

He is the author of Courageous Conversations About Race: A Field Guide for Achieving Equity in Schools (2006), a protocol for sustained, deep dialogue.

Valerie Ooka Pang

She has published several books on equity in education: Diversity and Equity in the Classroom and Multicultural Education: A Caring-Centered, Reflective Approach.

Stephen Peters

Stephen is the superintendent of Laurens County School District 55, South Carolina, and is the CEO and president of the Peters Group, an education consulting company that is dedicated to creating and sustaining success in schools and districts by supporting educators.
